A Note from Fr. Mike Loyd

EPIPHANY-SEASON OF STARS

I'm using this opportunity to push a book and that book is A Beautiful Year by Diana Butler Bass. A Beautiful Year is a book of meditations on the seasons of our liturgical church year. Bass takes us through the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Palm Sunday, Easter, and Pentecost. And her reflections and meditations on the scripture readings for each season gives a new appreciation of how special our Christian faith is and how it is filled with wonder, as well as with examples and inspiration to deal with the challenges of our world.

As you know, January is our opening month in the season of Epiphany, and in her book, Bass expresses her opinion that what Epiphany has to offer to us is not always appreciated. Epiphany is often thought of just that period of time between the two big Holy Days of Christmas and Easter. It's cold, it's January and February and we're anxious for spring. But Bass believes that the scripture readings are extremely relevant to our lives. And look at what goes on in our gospel readings for January. We learn that the light and promise given with the birth of Jesus is threatened as Herod begins a horrible infanticide of male babies driven by his obsession of killing this infant of which he has so much about. On another Sunday we have the baptism of Jesus. And then we close off the month with Jesus calling the first disciples and inviting them to "come and see."

Here's some more of what Diana Butler Bass writes concerning the season of Epiphany. "We cannot create epiphanies, but, like the Wise Men, we can respond to them. Epiphanies grab a hold of us, we can't shake them. Epiphany beckons us to pay attention and participate in widening the circle of light in the world. Whether a babe in Bethlehem or a burning bush, epiphanies guide us on a longer journey toward healing, liberation, and peace."

We also start off Epiphany on Sunday January 11 with Chalking the Door and follow that with an Epiphany party. Bring a white elephant gift and have some fun. And don't forget to attend the Annual Meeting on January 18 and be sure to get reports into Charlie by January 8. And that means me, your padre.

Besides Epiphany and the Annual Meeting, college basketball really gets going. I love both K.U. and K-State and maybe the Shockers will do something.

Words for Epiphany from the prophet Isaiah—Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you. (Isaiah 60:1)

Upcoming Outreach

Souper Bowl of Caring

Our annual Souper Bowl of Caring will be on Sunday, February 8th.

Mark your calendars! More info to come!

January 6 marks the day of Epiphany, when the wise men (who were Gentiles) came to worship Jesus and bring him gifts. During the church-year season of Epiphany, we remember that God's Son is the Light of the whole world.

To celebrate Epiphany, we will be having our annual St. Matthew's Epiphany Party on Sunday, January 11 at 3:00 pm. Please join us for a "white elephant" gift exchange, snacks and Chalking of the Door. Plan to bring a "white elephant" wrapped gift and join in on the fun. And bring your favorite snack to share. We will also be "chalking the door" to bless the church for another year.

A Note from the Junior Warden

St. Matthew's has been rekeyed. Your old keys will no longer work to get into the building. The new keys are different in that some of the new keys only work on exterior doors. Some of the keys work the exterior doors and open the doors to the office.

These keys cannot be reproduced without authorization. They operate much easier but lock a little different so check to make sure the door is locked when leaving.

If you need a new key you may come by the office to fill out a form and get a key.

We will now have records of all keys.

Thank you. Chris Simmonds

January 11—Baptism of the Lord

Father in heaven, who at the baptism of Jesus in the River Jordan proclaimed him your beloved Son and anointed him with the Holy Spirit: Grant that all who are baptized into his Name may keep the covenant they have made, and boldly confess him as Lord and Savior; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen

Making the most of ordinary time

In liturgical churches, more than half of the church-year calendar is labeled as Ordinary Time. Although that merely means the weeks are designated by ordinal numbers (First Sunday after the Epiphany, etc.), people may assume that "ordinary" means not special, or not a church holiday.

Ordinary gets a bad rap, but it represents the bulk of daily life. Not all days contain mountaintop experiences that warrant Facebook posts. Yet "simple, consistent, sometimes boring faithfulness" can lead to out-of-the-ordinary results, according to blogger Karl Vaters. "When you're following God's will for your life and you string a bunch of ordinary but necessary actions together, extraordinary things can happen," he writes at ChristianityToday.com.

Likewise, although Christians may strive to be radical, out-of-the-ordinary followers of Jesus, everyday discipleship leaves a powerful legacy. In The Ordinary Christian Life, pastor Michael Horton extols the value of "the regular preaching of Christ from all of the Scriptures, baptism, the Supper, the prayers of confession and praise, and all of the other aspects of ordinary Christian fellowship." He says the result of participating in "the ordinary life of the covenant community" is quite extraordinary: "steady maturation in Christ."

St Matthew's
Annual Parish Meeting
Sunday, January 18, 2026

11:30 AM

Almighty and ever living God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth, hear our prayers for this parish family. Strengthen the faithful, arouse the careless, and restore the penitent. Grant us all things necessary for our common life, and bring us all to be of one heart and mind within your holy Church; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

All committee chairs are asked to submit their Annual Reports to office.stmatthewsnewton@gmail.com or leave with Charlie in the church office as soon as possible. It is requested that all reports be submitted by January 8, 2026.

One agenda item is election of new Vestry members and convocation delegates. The nominating committee will be meeting to name a slate of nominees for Vestry and a convocation delegate. Please prayerfully consider serving if asked by the nominating committee.

Being a Vestry member is an important leadership position. Working with the priest, the Vestry is responsible for the financial and spiritual health of the church community.

Convocation delegates and alternate attend three or four meetings per year of the SW Convocation. The delegates attend the annual Diocesan Convention in October, which will be in Topeka in 2026. The alternate is encouraged to attend meetings of the SW Convocation to learn about the responsibilities of the delegates and attend the convention if the elected delegate cannot attend.

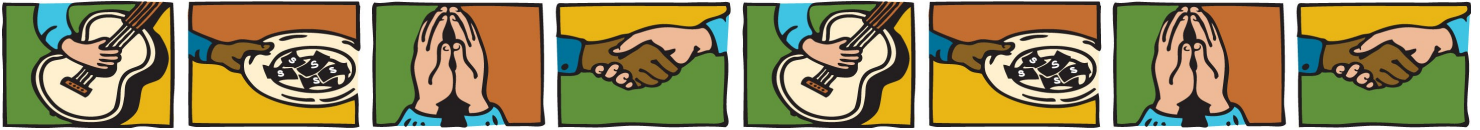

Please plan to attend the Annual Meeting as we look at what was accomplished in 2025 and as we plan ahead for 2026.

All members of St. Matthew's are encouraged to attend this important meeting of our church. Each committee will have their report for 2025, the budget will be discussed, and plans for the new year will be talked about and voted on!

Of course we will also be planning a Potluck Lunch along with the Annual Meeting!

Please bring a dish to share.
